- 1 EFS are bound by and will comply with the Privacy Act and National Privacy Principles in relation to the treatment of your personal information.
2 Information which we collect about you either directly or indirectly will be used, disclosed and made accessible by us in accordance with this Privacy Disclosure and Authorisation.
3 You authorise us to give to and seek personal information about your credit arrangements or obtain a consumer credit report containing information about you from any credit reporting agency.
4 This personal information which we may give or seek includes (where applicable):
(a) your name, sex, date of birth, current address and last two addresses, current or last known employer and driver's licence number;
(b) the fact that you wish to or have entered into a finance arrangement with us, the value of the equipment financed or proposed to be financed under the finance arrangement, and any obligations you or the Applicant may have under the finance arrangement;
(c) that you have drawn cheques for $100.00 or more which have been dishonoured more than once; and
(d) that court judgments and/or bankruptcy orders have been made against you.
5 You authorise us to use the credit report, or obtain a further credit report, for the purpose of collecting overdue payments relating to credit owed by you.
6 You authorise us to give to and seek credit reports and other information about your credit arrangements from:
(a) credit providers named in this Finance Application (if any); and
(b) any credit providers that may be named in a credit report issued by a credit reporting agency.
7 Your authorisation entitles us to exchange information about you:
(a) credit worthiness;
(b) credit standing;
(c) credit history; and
(d) credit capacity,
as permitted by the Privacy Act.
8 Your authorisation also entitles us to give the following information to a credit reporting agency (where applicable):
(a) that you are 60 days or more overdue in making a payment to us and that steps have been taken to recover all or any part of the amount which you owe; and
(b) that in our opinion you have committed a serious credit infringement.
9 Credit reports and other personal information we obtain about your credit arrangements from a credit reporting agency or a credit provider may be used by us for the following purposes:
(a) to assess this Finance Application;
(b) to collect payments that are overdue;
(c) to notify a credit provider if you breach any obligations you may have under a finance arrangement;
(d) to exchange personal information with other credit providers as to the status of your accounts and/or the accounts of the Applicant where you or the Applicant are in breach of a contract with a credit provider;
(e) to assess your credit worthiness;
(f) to allow a credit reporting agency to create a file about you;
(g) to administer your account and/or the account of the Applicant; and
(h) any other purpose permitted or required by law.
10 You authorise us to exchange personal information with:
(a) any person or organisation named by you or the Applicant in this Finance Application or provided from time to time;
(b) our collection agents or an unrelated debt recovery organisation if you or the Applicant are in breach of a finance arrangement; or
(c) our related companies and organisations which service or may service your and/or the Applicant's account.
11 You can request a copy of our Privacy Policy or obtain access to or update your personal information by writing to us.
12 If you provide personal information about another individual you agree that you will inform the individual that personal information about them has been supplied to us and why it has been provided and that they can contact us to obtain access to or update their personal information or get a copy of our Privacy Policy.
13 If you do not provide the information requested or do not give your authority for the use of the information we may decline the Applicant's application.
14 We may use or disclose the information you provide us before, during or after the term of any finance arrangement you or the Applicant may enter into with us.

Privacy Act Authorisation
